Are you a new director and wondering about the requirements for the nutrition program? Are you a current nutrition program director, wondering how the nutrition program can survive with its limited funding? Are you a future oriented director and wondering about program innovations? Then this webinar series is just for you!!

NANASP is proud to bring their most popular training for Nutrition Directors directly to you! Learn from seasoned experts in the field of aging - who combined have over 70 years of experience in the field of aging. This training will show the flexibility, the different variations and the diversity of the Older Americans Act (OAA).

This three part series will cover: the history of the OAA and its practical applications

- review the Aging Network structure
- develop strategies to work with program staff, local AAA's, State Units on Aging and Senior Centers.
- highlight the uniqueness of each state and local needs
- get back to basics, incorporating the challenges and opportunities your programs are facing in these difficult economic times and help you to create the ideal nutrition program and senior center.

Presenters:

Holly Greuling, RDN
National Nutritionist
Administration on Community Living
Administration on Aging
Washington, DC

Pat Bohse
President
Bohse & Associates
Middletown, NJ

The purpose of the first two presentations are to orient you to the Older Americans Act (OAA), the OAA Nutrition Program, the structure of home and community based services, the role of nutrition services in the aging services network, as well as the flexibility and innovation available to help meet the needs of the diversity of older adults, their families, states and local communities.

Thursday, October 6, 2016 - 2:00 PM ET Older Americans Act (OAA) Nutrition Program (Part I)

The first webinar will address the history of the Older Americans Act (OAA) and home and community based services; the relationship between nutrition, health and functionality; the challenges of a changing environment and systems providing nutrition services; the OAA Nutrition Program, the population we are serving and its requirements, and state/local variation and trends.

Thursday, October 13, 2016 - 2:00 PM ET Older Americans Act (OAA) Nutrition Program (Part II)

The second webinar will address the challenges of a changing environment, components of a quality nutrition program, and service trends and innovations. Both webinars will include an opportunity for questions and answers.

Thursday, October 20th - 2:00 PM ET What Does it Take to Run a Good Nutrition Program?

The third webinar will explain the importance of good leadership skills, best practices and imagination needed to run a great Senior Center/Nutrition Program. We will discuss the components required to stay competitive in this ever changing field and the network of home and community based programs. This session will cover:
