Spread holiday cheer, not the FLU!

If you live with, visit with, or care for people at high risk for severe complications from influenza, you and those at high risk should get vaccinated. Groups at high risk include infants, pregnant women, kids and adults with chronic medical conditions like asthma, diabetes, or heart disease, and adults aged 65 and older.

GET VACCINATED.